Digital Descriptor Systems, Inc. And Subsidiary To Exhibit Product At Law Enforcement Conference

For Immediate Release

SEA GIRT, N.J./EWORLDWIRE/Sep. 23, 2005 --- Digital Descriptor Systems, Inc. (DDSI) (Pink Sheets: DDSI) and its subsidiary, CGM Applied Security Technologies, will be exhibiting their products for the Criminal Justice markets in the 112th Annual Conference of the International Association of Chiefs of Police booth 2181, being held at the Miami Beach Convention Center in Miami Beach, Florida, September 25-27.

"Conferences like this one enable us to demonstrate how our products offer solutions to relevant issues in the criminal justice marketplace and to plan for the future product needs in this market," said Tony Shupin, CEO of DDSI. CGM will be exhibiting its new tamper evident bags, SecureTrac tapes and seals used for evidence and personal property issues. CGM provides the only evidence construction that cannot be surreptitiously opened with Freon gas fumes, heat or other common methods used to try to remove bag content. DDSI will be exhibiting its Compu-Capture 32 (CPC32) and ID Badging systems. The Compu-Capture application easily allows users to book, ID and create lineups in minutes. The company's Compu-Capture ActiveX/32 SDK provides an interface to seamlessly integrate with Record Management vendors, providing the capability to image enable their applications. Compu-Capture products have achieved Microsoft Windows Platform Certification.
