ISLAMABAD, Pakistan/EWORLDWIRE/Dec. 20, 2005 --- Dr. Andrei Aleinikov, known as "The Most Creative Man in the World," triumphantly concluded his tour to Islamabad and Karachi where he gave numerous successful presentations to business and educational leaders of the country.

His tour included:

- Two-day seminar in Islamabad entitled "Accelerating Organizational Results with MegaCreativity and MegalInnovation," for a selected group of CEOs, VPs and managers from Habib Bank, KhushhaliBank, British High Commission, Pepsi-Cola International, Descon Engineering Ltd., Proserve Education and other industries. Resulted in the "Most Creative Managers on Earth."
- Lecture on accelerated innovation (same as for 3M) for the scientists and managers of OMV Pakistan Exploration GmbH (Dr. Werner Ladwein, general manager), the fastest-growing oil and gas company.
- One-day seminar for the 2005 South Asian Management Forum, held in Karachi and sponsored by Nutshell Forum (Muhammad Azfar Ahsan, CEO). Participants became "The Most Creative Audience on Earth" by writing a book on ideal leadership in four minutes and 25 seconds.
- One-day highly interactive workshop entitled "Genius in Every Teacher," sponsored by the Teachers' Development Centre, Karachi (Abbas Husain, director).
- Lecture on the new horizons that GEM opens for accelerated improvement of educational results for principals and teachers of the Headstart School (Najib Murtaza, director), one of Islamabad's leading schools.

Dr. Aleinikov's tour was sponsored by the Management Development Institute (MDI) of Pakistan and made possible thanks to tremendous organizational effort of its director, Asad Zaidi.
