

ControlScan Certifies Faucetline.com As A Safe Shopping Site

In an effort to increase its Internet security, Faucetline.com, the leading online seller of kitchen and bathroom products online, today announced that it has become certified by ControlScan.

For Immediate Release

MARIETTA, Ga./EWorldWire/April 21, 2006 --- As a measure to increase privacy and security and to prevent hackers and thieves from accessing sensitive information from its customers, Faucetline.com hired ControlScan and subscribed to the Business Secure Plan. Through its unique process, ControlScan will conduct security tests and audits of faucetline.com and certify the site's security.

"Privacy and security are the main concerns of consumers," says ControlScan president and CEO Richard Stanton. "Consumers want to do business with companies who take privacy and security seriously. By passing the audits associated with the Business Secure Plan, Faucetline.com's visitors are reassured that this company is committed to protecting their personal and credit card information and providing a safe online shopping experience."

About Faucetline.com

The FaucetLine.com business infrastructure includes over 15,000 stock-keeping items strategically distributed between over 20 warehouses across the continental United States.
