

Claes Nobel, Nobel Prize Family, Presents Scholarship To New Jersey Student Sunny Cowell

For Immediate Release

BURLINGTON, N.J./EWorldWire/May 10, 2006 --- Claes Nobel, senior member of the Nobel Prize family and founder of The National Society of High School Scholars (NSHSS), will present a National Scholar Award to New Jersey high school student Sunny Cowell at a special recognition ceremony on May 13, 2006, in the U.S. Dirksen Senate Building in Washington, D.C. NSHSS will honor outstanding students and educators during the program. NSHSS scholarship recipients are selected on the basis of excellence in academics, leadership, and community service.

Cowell, a senior at Burlington Township High School in Burlington, New Jersey, was selected for the award from over 10,000 applicants. A talented musician, she will be performing a viola solo at the ceremony. She will attend Swarthmore College in the fall. Nobel stated, "I am deeply honored to recognize Sunny as one of the United States'™ most outstanding students."

The Nobel family established the Nobel Prizes in 1901 in order to note outstanding contributions in the fields of peace, literature, medicine, chemistry and physics. More than a century later, these internationally renowned awards continue to distinguish scientists, authors and leaders in a world forum. Nobel wishes to continue his family legacy by encouraging young people to reach their full potential and make a real difference for mankind.
