

Esna Technologies Introducing Telephony Office LinX Version 7.0 Via Online Media Webinar On August 1, 2006

Esna introduces features and benefits of latest release - version 7.0 - to media.

For Immediate Release

RICHMOND HILL, Canada/EWORLDWIRE/July 26, 2006 --- Esnatech, a leader in unified communications platforms, announced today that it will introduce Telephony Office LinX™s latest solution, Version 7.0, live via Webex next Tuesday, August 1, 2006 to the media. The Webex will introduce how the latest version integrates and introduces location-based routing, intelligent call filtering, embedded fax services and virtual assistant functionality. The three pillars of communication promoted in version 7.0 - mobility, presence and messaging - enables Esnatech to deliver a complete solution to its customers, eliminating the need for dedicated hardware and dramatically lowering the cost to deploy complete unified communication solutions to enterprise customers.

Other major, new features and capabilities to be presented at the event include:

CSTA and TAPI enabled presence management solution

Mobility integration for Microsoft Outlook using mobile phones, PDA™s and remote locations

Virtual assistant speech access to corporate directories and Outlook Personal Contacts

Mobile Presence/CTI Software for Symbian and Pocket PC phones

New Mobile gateway for wireless users

Integrated Soft Faxserver module

Agent logging service

Windows 2003 server support

“With UC becoming more prevalent as the industry standard, Esnatech™s Telephony Office LinX incorporates the best of telephony, converging both voice and data networks and uses them to build an outstanding product on one solid platform,” Davide Petramala, VP of Sales and Marketing for Esnatech said.

“Telephony Office LinX 7.0 offers mobility, presence and messaging, all key elements necessary to increase and improve connectivity, productivity and delivery, to and from anywhere, anytime and anyone, using any device, such as cell phone, laptop, and/or PDA. Esnatech™s products and services truly are 'Simply the best way to communicate!'”

Online Media Webinar will be on Tuesday, August 1 at 12pm EST.
