

Job News Hires Barbara Rose As Memphis General Manager

For Immediate Release

MEMPHIS, Tenn./EWorldWire/April 23, 2007 --- Job News, The Nation's fastest growing recruitment solutions company announces that it has hired Barbara Rose as General Manager of its Memphis operations.

"Barbara brings twenty five plus years of management, sales, business operations and customer service experience to the job," said Chris Hodge, Executive Vice-President of Job News. Hodge continued, "She has held inside sales and call center management positions with a lot of reputable companies, like Verizon and First Data Corporation. We are excited to have her take the lead of the Memphis office."

Barbara will build and manage a staff of six dedicated recruitment solution consultants. Through 2007, the products offered will be print and web. In 2008, the company plans to add broadcast, as it has currently in four other markets.

Founded in 1994, Job News is a privately held company that produces and distributes employment publications, operates recruitment websites and hosts area job fairs. Job News is now in 21 markets across the Midwest and South. The company focuses on local hiring solutions to job seekers and employers alike through media-rich comprehensive communication networks.
