

Maternity Wear and Breastfeeding Solutions From Fertile Mind

Fertile Mind continues to release new maternity and breastfeeding solutions - the aptly named Soft Shirt and the Milkbar Portable Nursing Pillow in new modern colours again show how clever the company is.

For Immediate Release

SEAFORTH, NSW/EWORLDWIRE/May 9, 2007 --- Fertile Mind loves announcing great news and especially love the company's new Soft Shirt. Simply the most delectable new maternity tops, they are served in liquorice, sauce, snow and chocolate colours. What appears to be a simple long-sleeved top is actually a fashion triumph, with superb Modal fabric and super design. The shirt is the result of working at length with a fabric specialist and fashion designer to create the essential maternity top, and know wearers will love it on first wear. It's also transitional for when baby has been born, with extra stretch to accommodate breastfeeding, while maintaining original shape. Try one on, and enjoy the feel and fit. Sizes Small to XLarge

NEW COLOURS, LOWER PRICE

The Milkbar Portable Nursing Pillow was already a hit with breastfeeding mums. Now, The Milkbar comes in new designer colours - marshmallow pink/sand, baby blue/sand, and chocolate/sand at reduced price. Support shoulders and back wherever breastfeeding or even for a comfortable cuddle.

BELLY BELT & BANDO

Pregnant women are enjoying bando - the most useful maternity garment on the market, with stretch, support and good looks. It feels amazing on - some customers say they wear it all day, every day "pregnant or not. Fertile Mind is also thrilled that it has been able to reduce the price of Belly belt Combo for all expectant mums to enjoy. All they need to turn their regular clothes into maternity wear. It works brilliantly with bando to offer even more options.
