About Larry Louie - Edmonton, Alberta, Canada

Larry Louie - The two greatest passions in his life are travel and photography. Louie's love for photography and travel developed at a very young age with his first National Geographic Magazine. Born in Hong Kong and raised in Edmonton, Canada, Louie was educated as a doctor of optometry. After optometry school, Louie experienced a renewed enthusiasm and appreciation for photography, especially black and white photography, and photojournalism after viewing an exhibition in New York's Guggenheim Museum of Josef Koudelka's work.

Louie takes several trips a year to many different places around the world. His special interests are in places far off the beaten path where the indigenous people and their culture and practices are rapidly becoming extinct.

His winning images will be on display at his office Louie Eyecare Centre at 10634 - 124 Street Edmonton, Alberta.
