

Pet Business, Cactus Critter Sitters, Extends Service Area and Company Services with Proper Poop Scooping

New client promotion available through January 31.

For Immediate Release

MESA, Ariz./EWORLDWIRE/Jan. 2, 2008 --- With the extension of Cactus Critter Sitters LLC into the East Valley of Mesa, Arizona, area pet owners have secured an exceptional choice for premium pet care and poop scooping. Owners Amber and Chris Rademaker have unleashed Cactus Critter Sitters LLC - a first-rate service for pet owners who want to leave their household pets in the comfort and familiarity of their homes while traveling on vacation or business trips.

A bonded and insured personal Cactus Critter Sitter nurtures and builds a solid relationship with a family and family pets. The pet-sitting partner will visit homes on a daily basis to feed, water, and care for pets. "The most important aspect of our guardianship is bestowing lots of tender, loving care and affection during each visit," says Chris.

A family owned company - by people who truly love pets, Cactus Critter Sitters perform other needed services in addition to looking after the household pets in a pampered style; they are happy to fetch newspapers, retrieve mail and even water houseplants. "Our clients leave their homes with peace of mind, knowing their pets and homes are in our responsible care," said Amber. "Our personal consideration for families extends into the yard with our Cactus Critter Sitters' prime poop scooping service - we help keep the yard fun and clean for everyone."

All clients making reservations for pet sitting or poop scooping service during the month of January will receive one free visit or cleaning with the purchase of one or more services. "This limited time offer is to introduce Cactus Critter Sitters services to Mesa, Arizona, pet owners and is part of the company's grand re-opening," notes Chris.
