

Ron Paul Campaign hires California PR Firm, KST Communications, to Launch Attacks Against John McCain

For Immediate Release

OROVILLE, Calif./EWORLDWIRE/Feb. 7, 2008 --- The Ron Paul 2008 Campaign hired California PR Firm KST Communications to issue claims against John McCain and make it look like the attacks were initiated from various veterans organizations, with the intent of remaining unassociated with the Ron Paul 2008 Campaign.

A press release was issued on Jan 18, 2008 in regards to the Documentary "Missing Presumed Dead" which points the finger directly at McCain for blocking POW investigations.

KST Communications did initially send out the press release, and a few days later was ordered by the Ron Paul 2008 Campaign to start hammering the press with a barrage of press releases from various veterans organizations that were Anti-McCain - with or without their consent - to stop John McCain from running away with the nomination.

Today the Ron Paul 2008 Campaign and Ron Paul claim to know nothing about the documentary or the Anti-McCain information portrayed in the documentary. This footage is the same documentary that Ron Paul sent a copy to all members of the House and Senate in November, 2005. "Ron Paul has said that he is not interested in attacking other candidates, yet he is interested in having third parties do the dirty work for him so that he can keep his hands clean," said Kara Topolsky of KST Communications.

All documents including emails will be released to the media for clarification purposes. Kara Topolsky can be reached at (530) 315-9078.
